

CHARLES WHITMAN IN FIRST MESSAGE URGES ECONOMY

New York's Governor Declines Maintenance of Positions for Sake of Political Patronage.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 6.—The increase in an unprecedented scale, in the number of State officials and employees, and the reckless increase in salaries in nearly all departments the last four years, are explained only by the existence of a deliberate plan to fasten the control of a party upon the State by the use of a vast amount of official patronage.

"The present condition of the State's finances," he said, "demands an immediate and drastic revision of the State's payrolls and I invite the cooperation of the departments and commissions which shall be abolished. Service should be rendered the State on the basis of efficient and economical private employment, and I invite the cooperation of the Legislature in an effort to accomplish that end, whether the salaried officials of the State continue from a former administration or take office under the present administration."

"It is not my purpose," the Governor continued, "to recommend to your honorable body legislation popularly known as 'ripper' legislation, to the end that offices or places now held by members of one political organization may be filled by members of another, but I do believe that it will be my duty to ask, from time to time, for such legislation as will compel obedience to the very simple mandate of the Legislature that appointments and promotion shall be made according to merit and fitness, to be ascertained, so far as practicable, by examination."

Governor Whitman recommended flatly that the Department of Efficiency and Economy, with a large list of officials, be abolished. The same recommendation was made regarding the office and helpers of the State fire marshal, various special commissions and the State superintendent of elections.

Governor Whitman did not read his message in person, but sent it to both houses of the Legislature by his secretary, William A. Orr.

SAW 50 "FAKE" PASSPORTS

Rumanian Gives Government Investigators Information

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Information regarding traffic in bogus passports purporting to be issued by Italy, Rumania and several other European countries, and sold in this city, has been placed in the hands of the investigators of the Department of Justice. The extent of this traffic was said to be much greater than that in American passports.

The man who brought this information said he was a Rumanian and that he had sold his own passport. After that, he said, he became an amateur detective and saw 50 change hands in one house.

He said the man behind the business was a German connected with the German diplomatic service.

PREYED ON WIDOWS

Swindler Obtained Insurance Money by Promising Marriage

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Half a dozen or more widows in Passaic, N. J., and that vicinity were elated last night when they heard that Stephen Barber had been arrested in Binghamton, N. Y., and would be returned there for trial on a charge of swindling.

Captain Turner, of the Passaic Detective Bureau, said he knew at least 15 widows who had lost money to a shrewd swindler who went to board with them and afterwards promised marriage.

"By learning that widows had received insurance money on the death of their husbands a swindler was able to know just where to find money," said Captain Turner.

"CORPSE" SCARES MOURNERS

"Dead" Man Appears in Doorway and Crowd Scatters

KEARNY, N. J., Jan. 6.—Twenty-five dollars, collected by friends of Charles Gibbs, a city official, to buy flowers for his funeral, were spent today—but not for flowers.

A committee of mourners was escorted into a darkened room at the Gibbs House. Prizes for "poor dead Charles" was being whispered when Gibbs himself appeared in the doorway. Half the committee sought refuge under a table. The other terror-stricken mourners saw the "apparition" and fled.

"It is a practical joker. When he sprained his ankle he had friends pass the word to other friends that he was dead."

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Just Pretending

ALICE was pretty tired, to be sure, but, of course, she didn't want to go to bed—who does? "Couldn't I stay up a little longer, mother?" she asked.

And because her mother was wise and careful of her little girl's health, she said, "No, indeed, dear; bedtime is here and to bed we go!"

So together they started upstairs. But Alice didn't feel very gay or happy because she kept thinking about staying in the woods, and that you are my chief lady-in-waiting.

"Alice's eyes opened wide. 'You a fairy queen?' she exclaimed.

"Yes, why not?" replied her mother in such a matter-of-fact voice that Alice could hardly believe her ears.

"And what will you do?" asked her mother.

"I'll be your lady-in-waiting," said Alice. "That's fine," said mother. "Now you must bring me my fairy slippers, the magic ones from the edge of the forest."

"Alice blinked and looked around. 'Where?' she asked.

The report further shows that the amount from the local railroad tax fund that was disposed of in the same manner was $1,552,563. The motor vehicle fund balanced the bank at the close of the year was $25,490.53; the receipts from this source for the fiscal year reached the sum of $381,447.38, and the disbursements amounted to $364,102.43.

DEFEAT OF VILLA FORCES AT PUEBLA BECOMES A ROUT

Obregon Reports to Carranza Capture of City—700 "Rebels" Killed and 600 Captured.

VERA CRUZ, Jan. 6.—General Alvaro Obregon notified General Carranza early today that he had taken full possession of the city of Puebla and that the Villista forces, which he defeated there yesterday, were in full flight. Fighting took place in the streets until a late hour last night, but finally the Villistas were driven from their last positions.

General Obregon reported that he took more than 600 prisoners. Unofficial reports say that fully 700 soldiers were killed in the battle.

"We have won the greatest battle of the revolution," General Obregon added in his report. "The soldiers loyal to the First Chief are pursuing the beaten rebels."

The streets of Puebla are said to be strewn with bodies of the dead. The battle began on the outskirts of the city, but the Villistas were soon driven into the town by the fierce attacks of General Obregon's troops. The Villistas had mounted machine guns in the houses and in the tower of the famous cathedral, but these were silenced by the well directed fire of General Obregon's men.

The cathedral was badly damaged. Before opening his attack General Obregon had cut the Inter-oceanic Railroad, preventing the arrival of reinforcements for the Villistas from Mexico City, 52 miles away.

The attacking forces were aided by three aviators, who flew high above the city and scouted out the positions of the defenders.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company spent more than $1,600,000, and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western $1,250,000.

THREE MEN DIE IN CHAIR

First Triple Execution by Electro-cution in New Jersey.

TRENTON, Jan. 6.—Three men were electrocuted at the State prison last night, making the first triple execution since the electric chair was installed in New Jersey. Richard Sparks, 37 years old, and George Green, 24, Negroes, paid the death penalty for the murder of Charles A. Ely, of Freehold, September 9, 1911. John Johnson, Negro, killed Laura Smith, September 14, near Riverton.

Thirty-six men had been executed since the adoption of electricity seven years ago. E. M. Curry, of the Massachusetts penitentiary, was the executioner.

SECRETARY DANIELS AWARDS MEDALS TO VERA CRUZ HEROES

"Tokens of Country's Grateful Appreciation," He Tells Bluejackets. "Honor Roll" Read.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—"The medals presented today are tokens of a grateful country's appreciation of work nobly done, of duty well performed, of readiness to face grave danger," declared Secretary of the Navy Daniels in presenting to 13 bluejacket medals of honor awarded them by Congress in recognition of their gallantry at the taking of Vera Cruz.

The presentation was made on the battleship Florida, at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

After reciting the honor paid by President Wilson and the nation to the memory of the "immortal 19" who fell at Vera Cruz, Secretary Daniels said:

"Thus it is, young men, that you, by your heroic work, your fine discipline, your loyalty, have earned the signal 'well done' and caused it to fly over the whole service, all wearers of the blue, bringing a glow of pride and admiration to the hearts of all patriotic Americans, and increasing their faith in the loyalty and ability of their defenders who go down to the sea in ships. You have added a new significance to the name 'bluejacket.'"

ALL HAIL THE BLUEJACKET!

"The bluejacket—let us take off our hats to him in the street, for his uniform is the blue of courage; take him by the hand, for his hand protects our homes; treat him with respect, for he rings true and his heart is of the finest gold."

Those who received the medals of honor today are: HENRY N. NICKERSON, boatswain's mate, first class.

ABRAHAM DE SOMER, chief turret captain. JOSEPH G. HARNER, boatswain's mate, first class.
